

Newsletter 17th October 2025

Another busy week seems to have flown by. The children across the school have been completing assessments in class this week and have been working extremely hard.

Go to this Sway