

Homework

Recognising the Past Perfect Form

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 5: (5G4.1b) Using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause

Differentiation:

Questions 1, 4 and 7 (Varied Fluency)

Developing Match the correct past perfect verb to complete each single-clause sentence. Regular verbs only.

Expected Match the correct past perfect verb to complete each multi-clause sentence. Regular and irregular verbs included.

Greater Depth Match the correct past perfect verb to complete the passage. Contains regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences. Some sentences contain multiple verbs in the past perfect form.

Questions 2, 5 and 8 (Varied Fluency)

Developing Rewrite the single-clause sentences using the verb in the past perfect form. Regular verbs only.

Expected Rewrite the multi-clause sentences using the verb in the past perfect form. Regular and irregular verbs included.

Greater Depth Rewrite the passage using the verbs in the past perfect form. Contains regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences. Some sentences contain multiple verbs in the past perfect form.

Questions 3, 6 and 9 (Application and Reasoning)

Developing Explain and correct the mistake in the single-clause sentence. Regular verbs only.

Expected Explain and correct the mistake in the multi-clause sentence. Regular and irregular verbs included.

Greater Depth Explain and correct the mistakes in the passage. Contains regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences. Some sentences contain multiple verbs in the past perfect form.

Recognising the Past Perfect Form

1. Match the correct past perfect verbs to complete each sentence.

A. Jane a routine for the gymnastics competition.

B. The rally car racer the race.

C. My siblings and parents a surprise party for me.

had practised

had finished

had organised

had walked

VF
HW/Ext

2. Rewrite the sentences below using the verb in the past perfect form.

A. Lucy and Josh waited for the train for an hour.

B. My brother starts university before Christmas.

C. The party started once they arrived.

VF
HW/Ext

3. Alice says,

I have written my sentence below in the past perfect form.

My sister cried before the film finished.

Explain and correct her mistake.

AR
HW/Ext

Recognising the Past Perfect Form

4. Match the correct past perfect verbs to complete each sentence.

A. Tom had competed in the event before, but this was the first time he .

B. The chef the roast chicken perfectly and everyone enjoyed it.

C. The constant rain devastation but the village worked together to repair the damage.

had cooked

had won

had enjoyed

had caused

VF
HW/Ext

5. Rewrite the sentences below using the verb in the past perfect form.

A. Harry and Jamil have played football since they were little, but this year they won the league.

B. The car engine failed again so Mum and Dad decided to take it to the garage.

C. The concert has begun but Janet and David made it just in time to see their favourite band.

VF
HW/Ext

6. George says,

I have written my sentence below in the past perfect form.

Although I have felt poorly all week, I managed to go to school everyday.

Explain and correct his mistake.

AR
HW/Ext

Recognising the Past Perfect Form

7. Match the correct past perfect verbs to complete each sentence.

With hesitation, she A slowly towards to derelict house. She B about this house many times but had never thought she would be brave enough to enter, yet something tonight C her towards it. Although her sister D her to go in, this wasn't her reason. It was more curiosity. She crept carefully through the gap in the warped, wooden boards. She E her belongings outside as she F to travel light. Upon the shelf to the left was a photo. She tucked it inside her jacket. She had promised to take something back as evidence of her being there. With this, she could have left, but she didn't...

had cried

had left

had worried

had pulled

had heard

had needed

had crept

had dared

VF
HW/Ext

8. Rewrite the passage below using verbs in the past perfect form.

The volcano, which lay dormant for many years, erupted last week. It caused chaos for nearby villages for some time and luckily many residents moved out of their homes by the time of the eruption. Local rescue services have tried to support those affected, but they struggled to cope with increasing pressure on resources. Neighbouring countries have now raised funds to help the victims to repair the damage caused to their homes, but it may take years to fully recover.

VF
HW/Ext

9. Aleema says,

I have written my passage below in the past perfect form.

At the start of my stay in your hotel, I have felt happy with my choice. The lady in reception had been very helpful and has carried my bags to my room. Sadly, I was disappointed with the room overall. The bed was broken and, even though I had reported it, nobody came to repair it or offer me a new room. Also, I have found the shower to be below expected standards of cleanliness and the water had been cold for most of the stay.

Explain and correct her mistakes.

AR
HW/Ext

Homework

Recognising the Past Perfect Form

Developing

1. A. had practised, B. had finished, C. had organised
2. A. Lucy and Josh had waited for the train for an hour. B. My brother had started university before Christmas. C. The party started once they had arrived.
3. Alice has written her sentence in the simple past tense. Her sentence should say, 'My sister had cried before the film finished.'

Expected

4. A. had won, B. had cooked, C. had caused
5. A. Harry and Jamil had played football since they were little, but this year they won the league. B. The car engine failed again so Mum and Dad had decided to take it to the garage. C. The concert had begun but Janet and David made it just in time to see their favourite band.
6. George has written his sentence in the present perfect form. His sentence should say, 'Although I had felt poorly all week, I managed to go to school everyday.'

Greater Depth

7. A. had crept, B. had heard, C. had pulled, D. had dared, E. had left, F. had needed
8. The volcano, which had lain dormant for many years, erupted last week. It had caused chaos for nearby villages for some time and luckily many residents had moved out of their homes by the time of the eruption. Local rescue services had tried to support those affected, but the struggled to cope with increasing pressure on resources. Neighbouring countries have now raised funds to help the victims to repair the damage caused to their homes, but it may take years to fully recover.
9. Aleema has written three verbs in the present tense instead of the past perfect form. Her passage should say, 'At the start of my stay in your hotel, I had felt happy with my choice. The lady in reception had been very helpful and had carried my bags to my room. Sadly, I was disappointed with the room overall. The bed was broken and, even though I had reported it, nobody came to repair it or offer me a new room. Also, I had found the shower to be below expected standards of cleanliness and the water had been cold for most of the stay.'