

Read and Write Numbers to 1,000,000

1. Complete the place value chart to represent the number 682,155.

100,000s	10,000s	1,000s	100s	10s	1s
● ● ● ●	● ● ● ●			● ● ●	● ●

VF

4. Crissie is reading the number 302,303.

Thirty-two thousand, three hundred and three

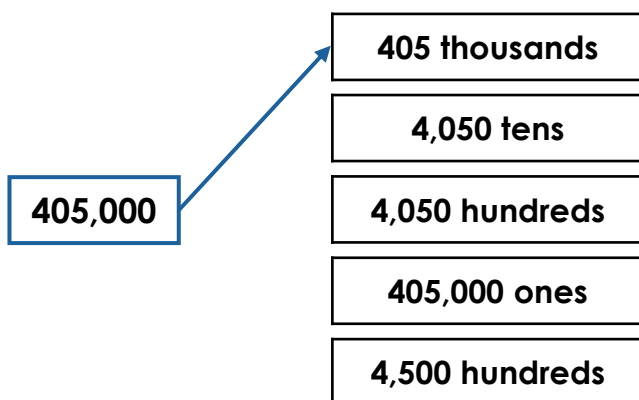

Crissie

Is she correct? Explain your answer.

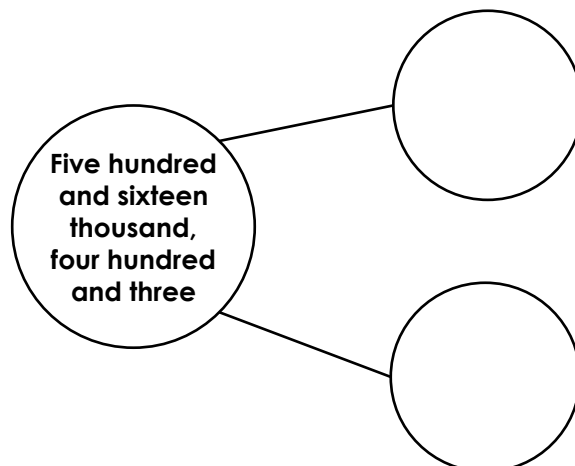

R

2. Draw two more lines to match 405,000 to other numbers of the same value

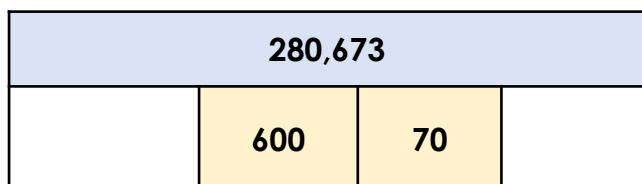

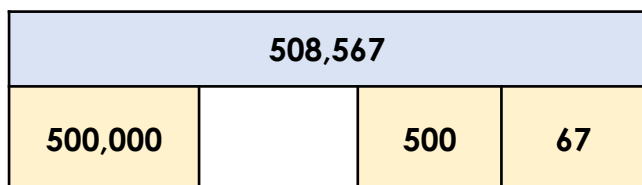

VF

5. Complete the part-whole model. Find more than one way.

PS

3. Complete the bar models below.

VF

6. Use the digit cards and the set of rules to make a 6-digit number.

The difference between the ones digit and tens digit is 3.

The hundred thousand digit is the smallest whilst the ten thousand digit is the largest.

The hundreds digit is even.

PS

Read and Write Numbers to 1,000,000

1.

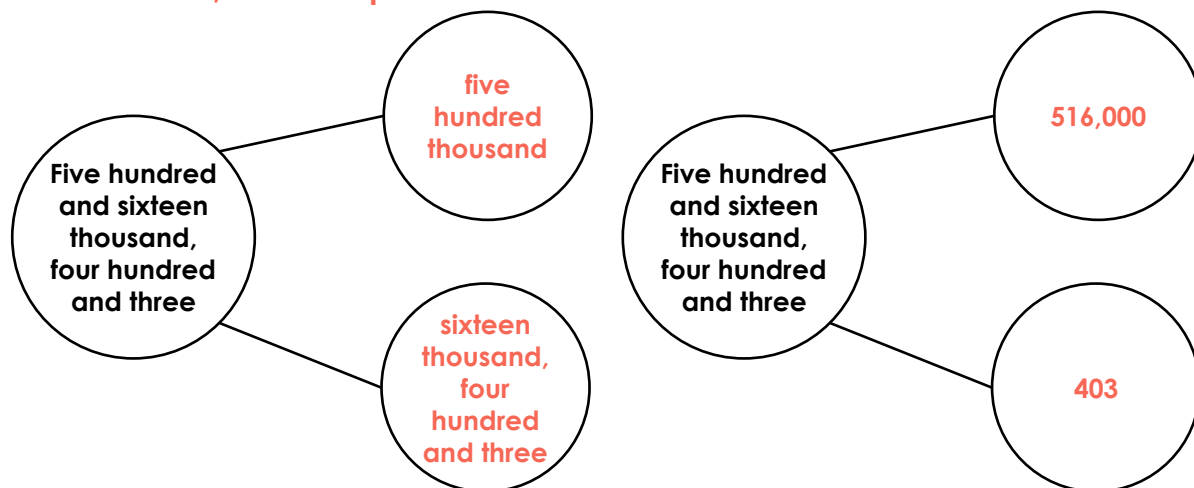

100,000s	10,000s	1,000s	100s	10s	1s

2. 405,000 ones; 4,050 hundreds

3. 8,000; 280,000 and 3

4. Crissie is incorrect. She has not taken note of the first place holder '0'. The correct answer is three hundred and two thousand, three hundred and three.

5. Various answers, for example:

6. Various answers, for example: 198,425, 194,285